Dr Oskar Maria Geitel

Specialist lawyer for public procurement law,
Specialist lawyer for construction and architects' law

Oskar Maria provides comprehensive and strategic advice on procurement law issues in the context of public tenders. When advising the principal, this includes the design of and support in complex procurement processes. When working for the bidder, Oskar Maria examines procurement documents for possible die public procurement violations, assists in the bid preparations and, where necessary, takes measures to enforce bidders' rights. To this end, Oskar Maria conducts review proceedings before the competent public procurement tribunals and higher regional courts. Oskar Maria also has particular expertise in the awarding of mail services. A further key practice area is private construction law. In this area Oskar Maria advises clients inter alia on the enforcement of wage claims in and out of court as well as the supervision of extensive construction projects.
